World Read Aloud Day!

February 1-6

Read Aloud, Change the World! – Driven by this slogan, the European School joins the important initiative and becomes part of the world celebration. To promote book reading and improve student literacy, the ES holds an online Read Aloud Week in Georgian and English languages.

You have an opportunity to meet writers, literary scholars, and speakers:

- Writer Giorgi Kekelidze - Series “Thomas Tales”, book two -“Under Another Sky”
- Literary scholar Lasha Bakradze- Akaki Bakradze’s book “ Ilia Chavchavadze”
- Literary scholar Levan Berdzenishvili –“Oedipus the King“;
- Speaker of the King’s & Queen’s Club Deril Fernandez – Arthur Conan Doyle’s books and his famous character Sherlock Holmes.

The Online Read Aloud Week organized by the ES is supported by Georgian Publishers and Booksellers Association, the National Library, the State Museum of Literature, and the publishing house - English Book Education.

World Read Aloud Day is a popular event celebrated in over 100 countries. This day, book lovers read aloud famous literary masterpieces.
